

A Cappella “Zing for Zonta”

A gift of song to support women and girls

Extreme Measures

Extreme Measures is the University of Colorado's premiere Mixed (Co-Ed) A Cappella Group, singing on campus since 1996. "EM" is run entirely by its group members, from arrangement of music, to direction and performance. EM has recorded three studio albums and is working on a fourth release this spring.

The Plumbers of Rome is a trio of accomplished musicians who sing fantastic, creative, deconstructionist renditions of popular music and kooky-cerebral original songs. Exploring the limits of the human voice, and building amazing musical textures with three voices, Plumbers of Rome put on a mind-bending show!

The New Wizard Oil Combination (also known as “The Wizards”) are timeless music sung with soulful voices, contagious rhythms, “vocal instrumental” sounds and entertaining stage presence. This rare and entertaining 12-man a cappella group is well known around the Denver–Boulder area where it has been performing to enthusiastic audiences for over 40 years.

“The Wizards” have a unique vocal jazz and rock style that is harmonious, powerful, funny and emotional—all wrapped up into one. Their spontaneous nature and entertaining personalities are why audiences never tire of them.

Formed in 1996, 3 Story Limit is an a cappella ensemble of eight singers who love to sing together so much, they steal time from their families, their jobs, and their other hobbies to create music. 3 Story Limit performs jazz, bee-bop, classical, and show tunes.

On The Rocks is the University of Colorado's newest a cappella addition, On the Rocks is ecstatic about the constant support from other groups and fans. As the premiere Women's group on campus, On the Rocks proves that women know how to rock. 14 members strong, On the Rocks prides themselves on a wide array of musical styles and traditions and always, spreads their love of music.
